FACE-TO-FACE

Courses offered in “face-to-face” format require students to be physically co-present with the instructor of record for the duration of the term, fulfilling contact minute guidelines.

HYBRID ASYNCHRONOUS

Combines face-to-face sessions with online work without any required virtual meetings. These courses meet in person at a teaching site for a minimum of 50% of the required contact minutes, and the remaining course delivery is online and asynchronous.

HYBRID SYNCHRONOUS

These courses meet in person at a teaching site for a minimum of 50% of the required contact minutes, and the remaining course delivery is online during scheduled chat times.

ONLINE (ASYNCHRONOUS)

BLENDED ONLINE

Require students to meet online in synchronous, scheduled sessions for a minimum of the 50% of the required contact minutes. The remainder of course delivery is also online, but asynchronous. Students are never required to come to a physical USM location.

CHAT (SYNCHRONOUS)

Students log in and participate during a set, scheduled time
